Manufacturers Association Annual Business Meeting Scheduled

(January 20, 2000) The Manufacturers Association will conduct its annual business meeting 12 noon, Wednesday, January 26th at the Town Club. Jamestown Mayor, Sam Teresi will be the guest speaker for the lunch meeting. “We believe it is essential to the success of the community and manufacturers, that we have strong lines of communication with the city,” stated Churchill. “We look forward to the opportunity to hear from the Mayor.”

“We have had a very good year as an organization, as we have expanded our member services and have built strong partnerships throughout the community,” stated Todd Trantum, MAJA Executive Director. “We will continue to work hard to serve the manufacturing community, represent their interests and develop services around their needs.”

Churchill outlined several services provided by the Association. The Association conducts an annual Wage and Salary Survey, and various other surveys valued by the membership. The Association offers an MBA program through Penn State University and several courses in collaboration with the Jamestown Community College and the Northwest Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association. The association publishes a membership directory and a newsletter titled Industrial Excellence in collaboration with the Greater Jamestown Economic Development Zone. New MAJA services include a discounted Worker’s Compensation program, the President and CEO Roundtable and a Human Resource Roundtable providing valuable information to member organizations. The association represents area manufacturers on issues such as workforce development, economic development, cost competitive government and health care cost containment.
